Why Study Abroad?

Inner Rewards:

Many students find that study abroad experiences are one of the most exciting and rewarding parts of their education.

Personal Transformation:

Study abroad experiences are a proven, high-impact practice that can foster permanent personal growth.

Progression toward Graduation:

You can take courses that lead you closer to your degree and let you explore areas of interest in a transformative setting.

Career Advancement:

Employers are looking for candidates with intercultural skills as well as independent thinkers with an inner drive. Set yourself apart from other applicants with your experiences.

Lifelong Relationships:

Friendships developed overseas often last a lifetime.
